Corrandes són corrandes released their 3rd album La meitat en són mentida (Half of them are a lie) this autumn, an album that mixes their material of improvised song and dance. Since 2013, they have brought Catalan traditional music to the stage, surrounded by humor, freshness and energy. The song, the verse, the improvisation and the rhythms are what motivate the band. Fleeting songs, unique dances laced with raw emotions.
